YOUNG LEADERS DAY EXCURSION: 2019

The National Young Leaders Day is an annual event founded in 1997 to develop strong leadership values amongst young Australians. Our Captains, Vice Captains and Prefects have attended this event in the past. It was extremely successful and students thoroughly enjoyed the experience. In 2019 we have booked our student leadership team to attend this event under the supervision of Mr. Horvat.

Date: Monday 11th March, 2019
Venue: International Convention Centre Sydney, Darling Drive, Darling Harbour
Time: The day will commence at 9.00am and end at 2.30 pm
Travel: Students can meet Mr Horvat at Bomaderry train station (times to be advised). We will travel to Kiama and then change trains onto Town Hall. From Town Hall station we will walk approx 15 mins to the International Convention Centre Sydney, Darling Drive, Darling Harbour. We will return the same route, arriving at Bomaderry train Station (times to be advised).

ALTERNATIVELY
Students can travel by private vehicle arranged by parents and meet Mr. Horvat at the main entrance at 8.45 am on Monday morning. Students can be collected from the same location at 2.30 pm when the day concludes.

Cost: Train travel – (to be advised)
Young Leaders Day - $0 (The school is subsidising the registration cost of $55.00 per student)

Students will require:
- Morning tea/lunch food and drink (to be taken).
- Notebook and pencil/pen.
- Backpack for their day gear. Students will wear full school uniform with their Leaders Jacket. A small amount of money can be taken for meal breaks/purchase of a Young Leader’s Pin

Please sign and return the attached permission note and parent contact information sheet to Mr. Horvat in the front office as soon as possible. You can also view information on the website: www.halogen.org.au
